NORTH STARS' OUTLOOK 1976-77

Half the faces on this year's 10th edition of the North Stars were not in sight when last season started. That's a measure of the change that has taken place at Minnesota.

There's no question that this year's crop of young players is the best ever to arrive at the North Stars' training camp. That's another measure of the change at Minnesota.

But for the first time in three seasons the North Stars' head coach is returning. And that's a measure of the stability that is emerging at Minnesota.

New faces? Take your pick.

Forwards Pierre Jarry and Bill Hogaboam were obtained from Detroit in the course of last season. Colorful goalie Gary Smith was acquired from Vancouver late last summer. Exciting Steve Jensen, the U.S. Olympic hero, joined the team late last season. College stars Alex Pirus of Notre Dame and Tom Younghans of the University of Minnesota signed in the off-season. Roland Eriksson, the best young Swedish hockey player in sight, agreed to a contract last summer. Last but far from least, the North Stars landed a couple nifty draft choices in the persons of No. 1 pick Glen Sharpley and No. 2 Jim Roberts.

Mix the newcomers with such holdovers as Tim Young, Bill Goldsworthy, Dean Talafous, Dwight Bialowas, Doug Hicks, Pete LoPresti and others and you have the ingredients of an exciting, vibrant 10th anniversary team.

Back at the helm of the North Stars is Coach Ted Harris, assisted by Andre Beaulieu. Both were rookies in the NHL coaching ranks last season. Both have benefited by the experience of a season in hockey's premier league. Both are ready, willing, and able to attack the task that is in front of them in 1976 and 1977.

GORDON
RITZ
President

When the directors of the Minnesota North Stars chose Gordy Ritz this past June to assume the presidency of the National Hockey League team, they selected a man whose background in hockey and in business is rich and diverse. Ritz, 50, is one of the founders of the North Stars, one of the prime movers in the establishment of an NHL franchise here in 1967. But his involvement in hockey goes back far beyond that landmark date. The native of Montreal — he moved to the Twin Cities in 1937 — played four years of hockey at Blake School and captained the 1944 team there. He played the same role at Yale, four years on the varsity and captain in his senior season in 1949. Ritz joined with North Stars' directors Robert McNulty and Walter Bush, Jr., to operate the Minneapolis' franchise in the Central League, then, at the birth of the North Stars, became the NHL team's first member of the Board of Governors. He also is chairman of the board of National Hockey League Services. Parallel to his career in hockey, Ritz established himself in the business world, largely in the communications field where he was connected with Time Magazine and Sports Illustrated and involved in ownership and management of several television and radio stations. The 1949 economics graduate from Yale — he has a master's degree in business administration from Harvard — has been active in community affairs and is this year chairman of the United Negro College Fund Drive in Minnesota. He and his wife, Joyce, live in Long Lake. They are the parents of five children.

JACK
GORDON
General Manager

It doesn't seem possible that Jack Gordon has been part and parcel of the North Stars' scene for six seasons and is starting his seventh. It seems only yesterday that the man from Winnipeg arrived to coach the North Stars to a stirring Stanley Cup semifinal finish against eventual champion Montreal. That was the 1970-71 season. Now it's 1976-77. Time indeed marches on and Gordon's role has changed with the times. He's now general manager, overseeing every aspect of Minnesota's hockey destiny. His background for the job could not be more fitting. He has served the sport as a player, coach and executive. Gordon left Winnipeg as a youngster in search of a hockey career and found most of it at Cleveland where he spent 11 seasons as a player, player-coach, coach and general manager of the American League team. He also worked four seasons as assistant general manager of the Rangers. Gordon coached the North Stars three full seasons — they made the playoffs each year — and part of two others. He was appointed general manager in 1974. Gordon is an ardent golfer when the demands of his job permits. He and his wife, Joyce, make their home in Edina. They are the parents of a son and daughter.

TED
HARRIS
Coach

"I think I learned a great deal last season and I certainly hope and plan to make use of what I learned during this season." That's what Ted Harris said, looking back at his first season as a National League coach and looking ahead to his second season behind the bench in the NHL. The position as coach was a new role in the veteran of 15 seasons as a professional and five drinks from the Stanley Cup. "Nothing really prepares you for it except coaching itself," says Harris, "but I think my first season's experience will do me and the team a lot of good in this season." If his career on the ice is any indication, Harris will make good use of that experience. He made his way into the NHL the hard way through season after season of learning the skills of defense in the minor leagues. But that work paid off with four Stanley Cup titles at Montreal and one more in his last season as a player at Philadelphia. Four of Harris' 11 seasons in the NHL were spent at Minnesota where he captained the North Stars to the playoffs in each year he played the full season. Harris, 40, and his wife, Maureen, have a farm home at Lakeville. They are the parents of a boy and a girl.

CHARLIE BURNS Assistant General Manager

Select a position in the North Stars' organization and, more than likely, Charlie Burns has held it. Since Burns was drafted by Minnesota from Pittsburgh in 1969, he has served as player, playing coach, coach, executive and coach at the minor-league level and now assistant general manager. The 40-year-old native of Detroit has acquitted himself with distinction in each of those jobs. His current duties call for him to aid Jack Gordon in all areas of the hockey operation. Burns played 15 years of professional hockey, performing at Detroit, Boston, California and Pittsburgh in the NHL and at San Francisco in the WHL before he joined the North Stars. His skills were a large part of the reason Minnesota made the playoffs in each of the four seasons he played for the North Stars. Charlie and his wife, Marge, make their home in, of course, Burnsville.

ANDRE
BEAULIEU (BOWL-you)
Assistant Coach

Andre Beaulieu made a successful transition from the Midwest Junior Hockey League to the National Hockey League last season in his typical low-keyed smooth manner. That's no surprise to anyone who knows the man who was one of Minnesota's most-respected high and junior coaches. Beaulieu, 34, had a combined eight-year record of 213-71-8 in six years at Hill-Murray High School and two years with the Junior Stars. That record and Beaulieu's vast hockey knowledge were reasons enough to win him the job as the North Stars' first assistant coach. Coach Ted Harris sums up his contributions in one word — "invaluable." A native of Shawinigan, Que., Beaulieu broke every collegiate scoring record in sight in his four years at St. Mary's College in Winona, Minn., where he scored 136 goals and 234 points in only 63 games. He also played senior hockey for Muskegon, Mich., and Trois Riviere, Que. Beaulieu received his degree in mathematics at St. Mary's and earned his master's degree in education at St. Thomas College. He and his wife, Kay, made their home in Woodbury and are the parents of a girl and a boy.

DEFENSE

FRED BARRETT

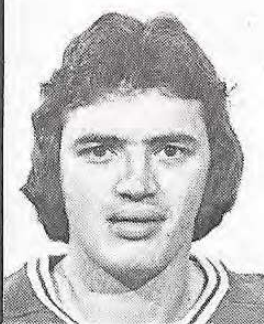

Height: 6-0 — Weight: 188 lbs.
Age: 26 (Jan. 26, 1950)
Born: Ottawa, Ont.
Home: Ottawa, Ont.

For two seasons in succession the newsmen who cover the North Stars on a regular basis have voted Fred Barrett as the team's No. 1 defenseman. That's a measure of the maturity reached by Barrett during his six seasons in the Minnesota organization. He's a hard but clean hitter — witness his mere 66 penalty minutes last season — and over the past couple seasons a vastly improved puck carrier and passer. An infrequent scorer, Barrett made his two goals count last year with one game winner and one game-tying goal... Has shaken the injury jinx that haunted him earlier. Played all but one game last year... Nickname is Swoop... Played junior hockey for the Toronto Marlboros... The North Stars' No. 2 choice in the 1970 Amateur Draft... Barrett and his wife, Lois, both have attended college... Was defensive partner of Coach Ted Harris when Harris played for Minnesota... The Barretts are the parents of a boy, 1.

DWIGHT BIALOWAS (BYE-low-us)

Height: 5-11; Weight: 195 lbs.
Age: 24 (Sept. 8, 1952)
Born: Regina, Sask.
Home: Regina, Sask.
Right Handed, Shoots Right

Dwight Bialowas probably didn't appreciate it at the time, but a journey to New Haven early last season made a better hockey player out of the young man from Regina. Bialowas was sent to the American League team at the end of last fall's training camp. He missed the first 12 games of the North Stars' season, but was so motivated when he returned that he became the team's No. 1 offensive defenseman with five goals, 18 assists and 23 points, five more than were scored by any other Minnesota defenseman. What's more, all five of Bialowas' goals were scored on the North Stars' power play ... The No. 2 pick of Atlanta in the 1972 Amateur Draft ... Traded by the Flames to Minnesota in January of 1975 with Dean Talafous in exchange for Barry Gibbs ... Eighty per cent of his goals were in the important category ... Has attended the University of Saskatchewan ... Wears contact lenses ... Married late last summer to Michelle.

BLAKE DUNLOP

Height: 5-11 — Weight: 175 lbs.
Age: 23 (April 18, 1953)
Born: Hamilton, Ont.
Home: Ottawa, Ont.
Left Handed, Shoots Right

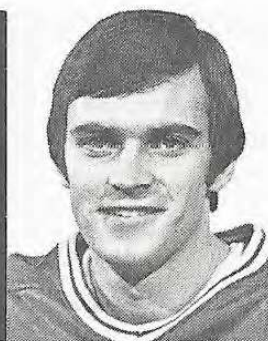

Blake Dunlop has all the tools it takes to reach star status in the National Hockey League, but in order to do that he needs to put in a full season in the NHL. Dunlop has been frustrated in that desire by injuries during each of the past two seasons. He missed more than half of last season, but still ranked in the Top Ten among North Stars' scorers. Playmaking is Dunlop's strongest area, but the clever center was also the North Stars' most accurate shooter (16.4 per cent) last season ... Minnesota's first pick in the 1973 Amateur Draft ... Led all juniors in Canada with 159 points in his last junior season at Ottawa ... An excellent tennis player, he was a ranked junior in Canada ... His junior coach was ex-North Star Leo Boivin ... Dunlop was married during this past summer. His wife's name is Nora.

Height: 6-3 — Weight: 180 lbs.
Age: 22 (March 1, 1954)
Born: Storåtuna, Sweden
Home: Leksand, Sweden
Right Handed, Shoots Left

The first European player signed by the North Stars may be the best yet to join any professional team. Center Roland Eriksson arrives in Minnesota on the heels of a stunning season during which he led Sweden in scoring in the World Championships, finished third among all scorers in the same tournament, scored the game winner against the Soviet Union and was named to his country's Canada Cup team. Not bad for a 22-year-old who was chosen by the North Stars in the eighth round of the 1974 Amateur Draft. The tall, dark and handsome center earned this praise from North Star Steve Jensen, who played against him in Europe: "He's very big, very fast and has some of the best moves I've ever seen in hockey" . . . Played for Leksands of Swedish League the last two seasons . . . Is Sweden's national mini-golf champion . . . Eriksson is not married.

 Born: Kitchener, Ont.

It hardly seems possible that 10 years have gone by since Bill Goldsworthy first pulled on a North Stars' sweater. But Minnesota is in its 10th year in the NHL and Goldsworthy is the last of the originals. The North Stars' right winger has scored more goals and more points and played more games than any other Minnesotan. He was the first player for a post-1967 team to score 200 goals and the first to score 250. His 48-goal season in 1973-74 was the best ever by a Minnesota player. He has scored more than 500 points. He has been chosen for six All-Star games. He has scored more than 30 goals in five of the last seven seasons. What's next for Goldy? "This team back in the playoffs," he answers. Bill and his wife, June are the parents of a girl, 8, and a boy, 5.

CENTER

BRYAN LEE HEXTALL

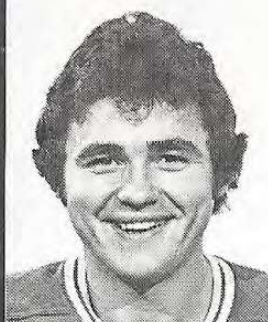

Height: 5-11 — Weight: 178 lbs.
Age: 35 (May 23, 1941)
Born: Winnipeg, Manitoba
Home: Brandon, Man.
Shoots Left

Pick a forward position and Bryan Hextall can play it. The veteran played left wing, right wing and center last season after he came to Minnesota from Detroit in an early-season trade. He also killed penalties and performed on the power play. His versatility is not surprising. The namesake of Hall of Famer Bryan Hextall, Sr., has been around the game of hockey for a few years — since the 1961-62 season — and knows the tricks of the trade. For a time last year he played on the same line as his brother, Dennis, who later was dealt to Detroit... Has played with five NHL teams... His two other brothers, Ricky and Randy, also are hockey players... One of his junior coaches was Jake Milford, now LA general manager... Enjoys fishing as a recreation... Ranked 100 per cent in important goals... Bryan and his wife, Fay, have three children, 15, 13 and 12.

Height: 5-11; Weight: 180 lbs.
 Age: 28 (Nov. 7, 1947)
 Born: Regina, Sask.

There's no question that Ernie Hicke had last season his best offensive year since he started playing in the National Hockey League back in 1970. Hicke's 23 goals were a personal high. His 185 shots were the most taken by any of the North Stars. His six power-play goals tied him for the team lead. His four game-winning goals were the most for any player on the club... Brother of former NHL player Bill Hicke... Came to Minnesota in January, 1975 trade with the NY Islanders... One of three North Stars to play all 80 games, thus ending a series of seasons that saw him miss part of each of three years via the injury route... Nickname is Bubble... Holds a Western League record of goals in nine straight games... Played junior hockey for his hometown Regina Pats... Hicke and his wife, Barbara, are the parents of a son, 4.

DOUG HICKS

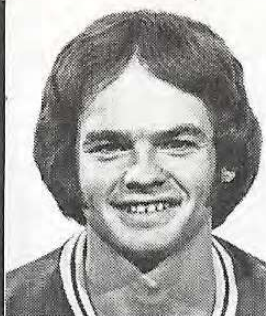

Height: 6-0 — Weight: 185 lbs.
 Age: 21 (May 29, 1955)
 Born: Cold Lake, Alta.
 Home: Red Deer, Alta.

Doug Hicks came of age last season and the North Stars' defense profited by the development. Chosen as a 19-year-old first-rounder in the 1974 Amateur Draft, the young man from Flin Flon's junior team took a little while to adjust to the pace and rigors of the National Hockey League. But adjust he did last season when his plus-minus figure led the club during the first half of the season and finished high overall. The key to Hicks' success and the reason the North Stars drafted him high is his skating ability, outstanding in any company . . . Hicks never has missed a Minnesota game. He played 80 his first year, 80 his second season . . . Took 102 shots last season, the most of any Minnesota defenseman . . . His five goals tied for the most by a North Star defenseman . . . Hicks is not married.

Height: 5-11 — Weight: 170 lbs.
Age: 27 (May 9, 1949)
Born: Swift Current, Sask.
Home: Kelowna, B.C.
Shoots Right

The timing couldn't have been better when the North Stars obtained Bill Hogaboam in a trade with Detroit three-quarters of the way through last season. Why? Because the slim forward seems to have reached the peak of his NHL abilities. The 28 goals he scored for the North Stars and the Red Wings were by far the most he's had in an NHL season. With his big shot and superior skating ability he should improve on that figure in future seasons. Some centers tend more to playmaking, but Hogaboam's stock in trade is goalscoring. Get him the puck and he'll put it in the net... Born in Swift Current, Sask., and played junior hockey there... Broke into the NHL with Atlanta... His 51 points matched the total scored by Minnesota team leader Tim Young... Minnesota's second most-accurate shooter in the 18 games he played... Bill and his wife, Dee, are the parents of a daughter, 1.

When the followers of the North Stars name you not only their most popular player, but also the team's King of Hearts, you have to be doing something right. Both those honors were won by Pierre Jarry, who early last season saw his hockey career apparently dwindling away in the minor leagues. But a phone call made by General Manager Jack Gordon changed all that. Jarry was traded by the Detroit organization to Minnesota and, suddenly, was enroute to his best goalscoring season ever in the NHL — 21 goals in 59 games, the second-best shooting percentage on the team (14.7 per cent) . . . Plays on a line with center Tom Young and right winger Dean Talafous . . . First-round draft pick by the Rangers in 1969 . . . Like many North Stars, played junior hockey in Ottawa . . . Golfer in the off-season . . . Attended Sherbrooke University . . . Single.

 Age: 21 (April 14, 1955)
 Born: Minneapolis, Minn.
 Home: Plymouth, Minn.
 Left Handed, Shoots Left

There seems no doubt that the North Stars struck gold last spring when they signed U.S. Olympic hero Steve Jensen late in the 1975-76 season. The blonde, young winger, born and raised here in the Twin Cities, was fresh from his Olympic heroics and went on to prove his mettle among the professionals. He played only 19 games, but scored seven goals, a rate that would give him 30 over a full season. What's more, after playing 64 games with the Olympics and 19 with the North Stars, he joined the U.S. National team and led its surprising showing in the World Championships in Poland. Thus it was no shock that he was chosen to play for Team USA in this fall's Canada cup and that he looms as one of the best rookie prospects in hockey ... Led U.S. Olympics with 52 goals in 64 games and six goals in the Winter Games ... Two years of college at Michigan Tech ... Wife's name is Sandra.

Height: 6-1 — Weight: 195 lbs.
Age: 22 (May 23, 1954)
Born: Virginia, Minn.
Home: Tower, Minn.

Pete LoPresti's skill in goal is the product of both heredity and environment. His father, Sam, played in the NHL in the early 40's and still holds the league record of 80 saves in one game, a 3-2 Chicago loss to Boston on March 4, 1941. The younger LoPresti grew up where hockey is supreme, in Eveleth, Minn., located in the heart of the state's Iron Range and the home of such NHL heroes as Frankie Brimsek, John Marriucci and Mike Karakas... Played high school hockey in Eveleth and attended Denver University for two years... North Stars' third pick in the 1974 Amateur Draft... The youngest regular goalie in the NHL in each of the last two seasons... Gained his first NHL shutout against the then Stanley Cup champion Philadelphia Flyers... Relaxed temperament is good for a goalie... Pete's wife is named Teresa.

Whenever Coach Ted Harris needs a man to fill a position, he automatically looks around for No. 23. That's Lou Nanne, most versatile of all the North Stars. Nanne is equally adept at defense or one of the forward positions, he's a strong point man on the power play and a skilled penalty killer. Last year Nanne, only one of three players who has performed in every North Star season, spent most of the year on defense, the position where he won All-American honors at the University of Minnesota. But no matter where Harris places him this season, he'll be both ready and willing... Chosen for Team USA in this year's Canada Cup... A naturalized U.S. citizen, captained the 1968 Olympic team... Teammate of the Brothers Esposito as a youngster... Into television and radio broadcasting... Lou and his wife Francine are the parents of a girl, 13, twin boys, 11, and a boy, 8.

Larry Wilson, coach of Richmond's American Hockey League team, is not an employee of the North Stars nor is he under any obligation to Richard Nantais, so it says something about the potential of this young Minnesota player that Wilson took the time after last season to write North Stars' General Manager Jack Gordon and tell him that he felt Nantais had an excellent chance to blossom into a National Leaguer. Wilson saw Nantais for 21 regular-season games and eight playoff contests and was highly-impressed with the left winger's genuine toughness and willingness to play the game hard both ways... Minnesota's second choice in the 1974 Amateur Draft... Played junior hockey for Quebec City... Performed for four clubs last season, three in the AHL and for five games at Minnesota... Scored 60 goals and 130 assists in his last year in the Quebec Junior League. Richard is married. His wife's name is Louisa

You could call Dennis O'Brien the North Stars' designated hitter. After all, the rugged Irishman set a club record for penalty minutes last season when he spent 187 minutes serving time in the penalty box. But there's more to O'Brien than the role of roughneck. He's a good puck carrier and shows a nice touch on the occasions when he gets a close-in scoring opportunity... Has led the North Stars in penalty minutes for two of the last three seasons... Minnesota's No. 2 pick in the 1969 Amateur Draft... Played his junior hockey for St. Catharines of the OHA... Once held the Central League record of 331 penalty minutes in one season... O'Brien comes from a good-sized family — five brothers and three sisters... Has averaged 133 penalty minutes a season over the last four years... Dennis and his wife, Janice, are the parents of a girl, 4.

If you hear the Notre Dame Victory March echoing around Met Center this winter, don't think the organist has made a mistake. He simply will be celebrating the success of Alex Pirus, Notre Dame's leading goalscorer last season and a North Star this season. Pirus was Minnesota's third-round choice in the 1975 Amateur Draft and chose to complete his junior year in college before joining the NHL team. Chief Scout Ted O'Connor rates Pirus as "strong in the corners, a good hitter, tough, with a terrific wrist shot" and gives the young-star a good chance of making the big show in his rookie season... An honor student at Notre Dame, he had a B-plus average and plans to obtain his degree... Led the Irish in goals despite the fact he missed seven games because of injuries... Nickname is Pi... Was the 41st choice overall in the 1975 draft, one behind Minnesota teammate Paul Harrison... Pirus is single.

To say that as Tom Reid goes, so goes the North Stars' defense is too easy a generality. But it is rather close to the mark. When it comes to keeping the puck away from Minnesota's goal, Reid has been and is the key man. He has total command of the defensive skills, blocking shots, taking the puck away from opponents, clearing out the area in front of the goal. When Reid is at the top of his game, the North Stars' goals-against goes down . . . Didn't score a goal last season for the first full season since he joined the North Stars . . . No. 4 in seniority among current team members . . . Scored the only regular-season successful penalty shot ever by a North Star . . . Active member of the Federation of Christian Athletes . . . One of the team's proficient practical jokers . . . Reid and his wife, Susan, live in Fort Erie, Ont., in the off-season.

O.K. We'll answer your first question. No, this is not the Jim Roberts who played for Montreal last season. Nor is he any relation to the Canadien forward. This Jim Roberts is 16 years younger, 11 pounds heavier and three inches taller — and he was Minnesota's No. 2 choice (31st overall) in the 1976 Amateur Draft. "Jim works hard and, perhaps even more important, plays a thinking man's game," says General Manager Jack Gordon. "He has the size that is important these days and is a willing competitor" . . . One of many North Stars to play their junior hockey in Ottawa, Roberts was coached in his first Junior A year by ex-North Star Leo Boivin . . . Nick-name is Farmboy from the farm his family works in Ontario . . . Scoring showed steady progression upward during all three of his junior seasons . . . Roberts is not married.

According to the men who know best, Glen Sharpley was one of the three best 20-year-old hockey players in the world last season. Obviously, that's why the North Stars made the broad-shouldered center their No. 1 choice in the 1976 Amateur Draft. And it's why he is expected to make a large splash in NHL circles this winter. "He led his team (Hull of the Quebec League) into the playoffs almost all by himself," says Ted O'Connor, Minnesota's chief scout. "He's always in the game, a strong skater and the type of player who won't be bullied." Sharpley, who also can play right wing, scored 51 more points than any other player on last year's Hull team, an indication of how valuable he was to his club . . . Sharpley's favorite recreation is scuba diving . . . His coach in his final junior year was ex-NHL star Marcel Pronovost . . . Unmarried.

Height : 6-4—Weight: 215 lbs.
Age: 32 (Feb. 4, 1944)
Born: Ottawa, Ont.
Home: Lake Tahoe, Calif.

"When I went to Vancouver, they were in last place, and they went from last to first." So said goaltender Gary Smith when he was traded to Minnesota by Vancouver late in August as part of a deal that sent veteran Cesare Maniago to the Canucks. The confidence expressed by the largest goalie in the NHL should stand him in good stead in his first year at Minnesota. Smith, a workhouse who has averaged 63 games a season over his three years at Vancouver, is one of the most important reasons the Canucks finished first and second in the Smythe Division the last two seasons... Has played seasons of 71 and 72 games... Shared Vezina Trophy with Tony Esposito at Chicago in 1971-72... His brother, Brian, played nine games with the North Stars in 1968-69... Set Vancouver team records of 32 victories and six shutouts in 1974-75.

Not too many years ago Dean Talafous was performing on the Met Center ice as the star of Hastings, Minn. High School's state tournament team. Between then and now the tall young man has made remarkable strides. Last season, his first full year in a Minnesota uniform, Talafous scored 48 points to tie with Pittsburgh's Stan Gilbertson as the leading U.S.-born scorer in the NHL. That feat and his all-around play led to his choice on Team USA's Canada Cup entry. Talafous has all the skills needed by an NHL forward, but his most-important asset is his willingness to dig and battle for the puck in the corners and along the boards... Scored NCAA title-winning goal for University of Wisconsin in 1973... Atlanta's fourth pick in the 1973 Amateur, first U.S. player taken that year... Traded to Minnesota in January, 1975... The New York Islanders' Bryan Trottier was the only NHL rookie to score more points per game last season than Minnesota's Tim Young. Trottier was named NHL rookie of the year, which says something about the abilities of Young, who averaged .809 points per game after he was called up by the North Stars 17 games into last season. Young won the WCCO-Radio Trophy as Minnesota's leading scorer and the WTCN-TV Trophy as the team's No. 1 rookie. What it adds up to is a fine first season and an impressive future for the skillful playmaker... Los Angeles' first choice in the 1975 Amateur Draft, he was traded to Minnesota in August of 1975... Played junior hockey in Ottawa where he logged 163 points in 1974-75... Shooting percentage of 14.2 per cent ranked third on team... Led OHA with 107 assists in his last junior year... The man his pals call Scooter did it all for the University of Minnesota last winter and plans to do the same for the North Stars this season. Tom Younghans can play all three forward positions — he prefers the right side — is a fine penalty killer and last year scored four of his team's nine shorthanded goals while helping the Gophers to the NCAA title. Those qualities were more than enough to excite the interest of Minnesota general manager Jack Gordon, who signed the graduating senior and praised not only his talent, but also his penchant for hard work . . . Played with distinction for the surprising U.S. team in last spring's World Championships in Poland . . . A high school player at St. Agnes in St. Paul, Younghans performed two years for St. Mary's College of Winona, Minn., before transferring to the U of M . . . Put on the North Stars' negotiation list by John Mariucci . . . Younghans is single.

NORTH STARS' RADIO , TV TEAMS

A team that has stood the test of time has been reunited this season when WCCO-Radio and WTCN-TV will carry the North Stars' radio and television broadcasts.

It is the 10th successive season that the two Twin Cities stations have played the role of flagships for North Stars' coverage.

Also back for the 10th season in a row as play-by-play man for all 80 of the games carried on WCCO (830) is Al Shaver. He'll be assisted on the air by color analyst Steve Cannon.

WTCN-TV (Ch. 11) also will bring the same team back to the broadcast booth for 25 games — 21 away, four at home — in the persons of Joe Boyle and Roger Buxton.
